

The background of the entire poster is a reproduction of the painting 'The Starry Night' by the Dutch Impressionist painter J.M.W. Turner. The painting depicts a turbulent, swirling night sky with a prominent crescent moon and numerous stars, each surrounded by a luminous halo. Below the sky, a dark, jagged silhouette of a cypress tree stands on the left, while a small village with a church spire is visible in the distance. The overall color palette is dominated by various shades of blue, with highlights of yellow and white from the celestial bodies.

"[...] angelheaded hipsters burning for the ancient heavenly connection to the starry dynamo in the machinery of the night [...]"

Allen Ginsberg, Howl

An evening of astronomy and art

Planetarium show featuring astronomy-related music, visual arts, dance, and creative writing.

Family-friendly rooftop observing night to follow, with art and writing supplies provided to make your own astronomical masterpiece

Free and open to the public with reservation at planetarium.osu.edu/public-programs

Arne Slettebak Planetarium
Smith Lab

Ohio State University

Saturday, November 21 starting at 7pm with creative lab starting at 8pm